FACULTY

Administration Provides Another Successful Year

Friendship describes the relationship between the student body and administration at Wakulla. Both faculty and administration strive to create a pleasant, workable atmosphere in which students may expand their learning ability. Mr. Hinson along with Mr. Pelham work to provide our school with a number of exciting activities. Students not only learn to respect faculty members, but often grow to like them. Lunchroom workers and bus drivers add to the atmosphere of "togetherness" by adding to the school service program.

Superintendent William Payne greets visitors to his office.

Mr. Jones takes time out to relax and enjoy being by himself—for a change.

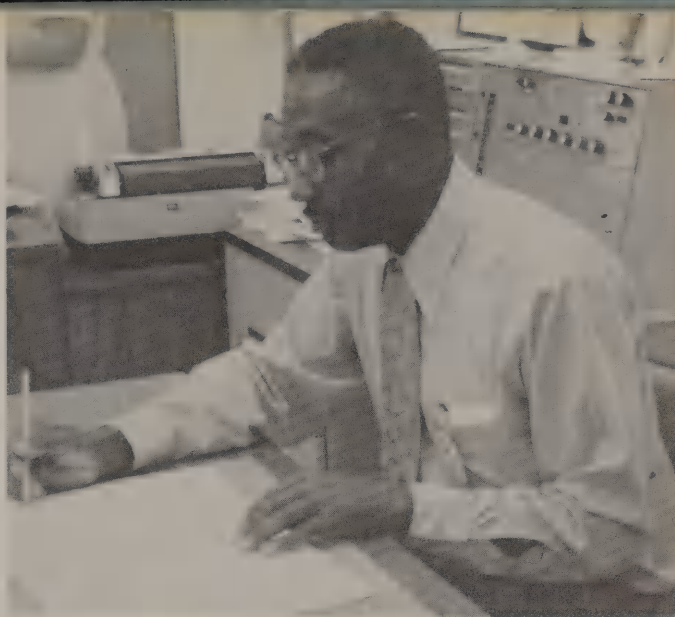

Mr. Hinson wonders if there will be any money left in the school budget after he gets finished signing checks.

Our Assistant Principal, Mr. Pelham, smokes his pipe while in deep concentration.

Typing memos is just one of the everyday jobs for Mrs. Langston.

Mr. Green makes sure that the purchase orders are correct before putting them into the mail.

Mrs. Jensen takes time off from her curriculum planning to relax and give a big smile.

Mrs. Hatfield checks over student records so that she may become acquainted with the students.

Mrs. Crowson checks over the school's financial records.

Mr. Thurmond discusses curriculum planning with Mr. Payne.

"Don't tell me you forgot your homework again," says Mrs. Wooten with a big grin.

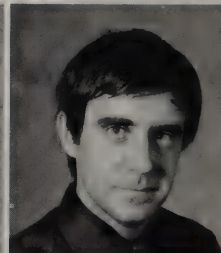

Coach Wooten looks back to see if the yearbook photographer snapped a picture of him in his shorts.

Eagles Are Enthusiastic!

Waiting seems to be an even harder job for the coach and his players.

The extra point kicked by Dennis Brown gave Wakulla the edge it needed to defeat Mosely.

Determination and enthusiasm were the key words for the Wakulla War Eagles as they, under the leadership of Coach Wooten, battled their way to a 5-4-1 season. After a slow start, with the loss of two games and three starting players, the War Eagles soared ahead with four straight victories. The highlight of the season was an exciting 14-14 tie with NFCS in the Homecoming game.

The Jr. Varsity also had a fine season, ending with a 5-2-1 record. Under the able direction of Coach Golden, the team overcame tough clubs, such as Blountstown, Robert Monroe, and NFCS.

The Jr. High team gained experience and potential as, led by Coach Stokely, they struggled to a 2-3 season.

Richard Harris plows through North Florida Christian's defensive line to gain a touchdown.

Journalism Provides Creative Outlet

Each year the yearbook staff undertakes the awesome task of producing a book which "tells the story" of the school year. Co-editors Cheryl Brimmer and Letha Metcalf helped to train the new staff members for the production of Wakulla's Eagle's Crest. The entire staff, involved in rushed deadlines and busy schedules, hoped the finished product would reflect their hours of work. The staff worked on additional school publications after the final yearbook deadline had passed. Mrs. Joseph, the advisor, commented, "We hope that this yearbook displays the true spirit of Wakulla."

Staff member Debbie Brown works on a preliminary layout for the activities section.

Although the staffs' comments can be amusing, Mrs. Joseph reminds everyone that there's work to be done.

The staff was always eager to preview the latest batch of pictures.

Those long awaited proof-sheets finally arrived!

The morning that the Great Pumpkin brought Pumpkingrams to good girls and boys was hectic for N.H.S. members.

The Jr. N.H.S. was led this year by Lou Moore, Mike Mathers, Diane Anderson, Sally Begley, and Jenny Smith.

National Honor Society Encourages Scholastic Enthusiasm

The N.H.S. officers for 1973-74 were Donna Crum, Danny Brinson, Ken Stills, Randy Smith, and Melanie Parrish.

Members of the National Honor Society were on the go again this year as they reached for even higher goals. Aside from the yearly Pumpkingram sales, the N.H.S. also had car washes, bake sales, and sold Santagrams. These were the tools they used to raise money for a trip to Disney World. The N.H.S. also had serious business to worry about. Their main objectives in the meetings this year were to set up new guidelines for the admission of new members. The sponsors of the N.H.S. were Mr. Williams, Mr. Myhre, and Miss Brady.

"This stack of undelivered Pumpkingrams is growing!" thinks Mr. Williams.

Fall Activities Offer Entertainment.

The North Florida Fair and Veteran's Day were part of the fall activities. Along with enjoying cotton candy, corndogs, and action-packed rides, many students took home ribbons for competition in livestock. Veteran's Day brought all Wakulla County students together to honor United States Veterans. Rep. Don Fuqua spoke to the students on their role in these changing times. Through a sharing of school and county spirit, these fall activities are a part of students school life.

The six grade class provided musical entertainment during the Veteran's Day program.

Rep. Don Fuqua spoke to the students on their role in today's changing times.

The flag is raised at the beginning of the program by Wakulla Veterans.

Come on take us around again!

The double ferris wheel provides excitement for every rider.

Wakulla students took time off from school to attend the fair.

Students Learn to Appreciate the Outdoors in F.F.A. and Gardening

Mr. Greener and Mr. Holland were proud of the achievements of the students in their clubs. Mr. Greener's Future Farmers of America (F.F.A.) students have shown hogs at the North Florida Fair and at the Wakulla Area Swine Show. Mr. Holland's Gardening students have used their skills in Horticulture to help people around the county in landscaping and planting. The students did their part for ecology and enjoyed these outdoor activities.

Students depend on their trusty truck to take them to the Gardening.

Mr. Holland shows Floyd Jackson some of the techniques of Gardening.

Club members enjoy watching their plants grow.

Students try out the seating arrangements on the new tractor.

Traditional Events Caused Homecoming Excitement

Diane Acre, Queen of 1972-73, presented roses to Sarabeth Morrison, the Queen of 1973-74.

Many activities took place during the week of Oct. 22, Spirit Week. Monday began the week of spirit with Hat Day, and a variety of hats were decorated. Tuesday was Lick'em Day and Sock Day; legs were covered in crazy decorated socks and tongues had colors to match. On Wednesday, Shirt Day, the popular War Eagle shirts out-numbered them all. At the bonfire that evening a North Florida Christian Eagle was burned. Thursday was Crash Day, and damage beyond belief was done to the mock N.F.C. car. Spirit, Color, and Button Day on Friday, featured the wearing of school colors and a snoopy button. These activities made school spirit swell, all students were anticipating the big night. During half-time Sarabeth Morrison was crowned Queen. The game ended with a tie of 14-14. Many celebrated at the Homecoming dance. The clock stroke 12 and everything was over.

Jr. High students were members of the Homecoming court.

Fans stood up during half-time to get a better view of the crowning.

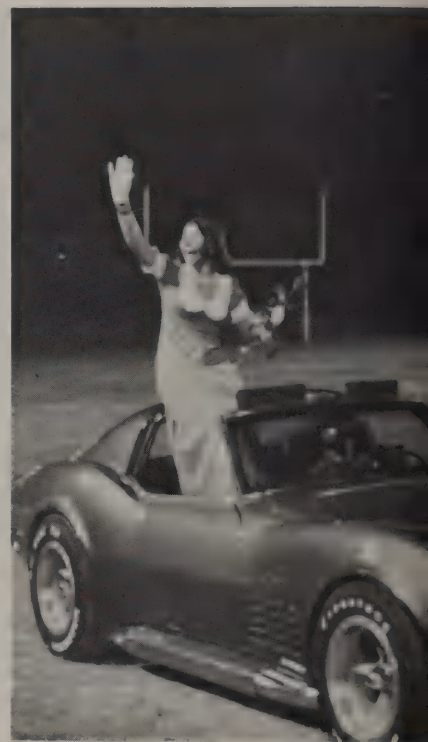

What, When, and Who Describes Activities

The Eagle went up in flames at the Homecoming bonfire.

Pam Ladd was thrilled as she approached the crowd in a Corvette.

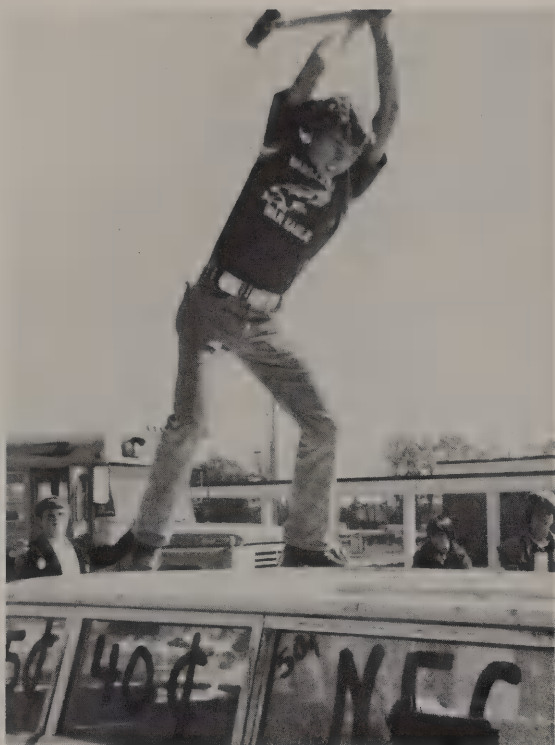

The North Florida Christian Eagle waits to meet its doom.

Sarabeth Morrison and her escort David Brown were the main attraction at the dance.

Held During the Week of HOMECOMING

John Oaks gave the N.F.C. car a powerful smash on Crash Day.

Senior candidates awaited the announcing of the Queen.

Math Students Increase Their Knowledge of Math

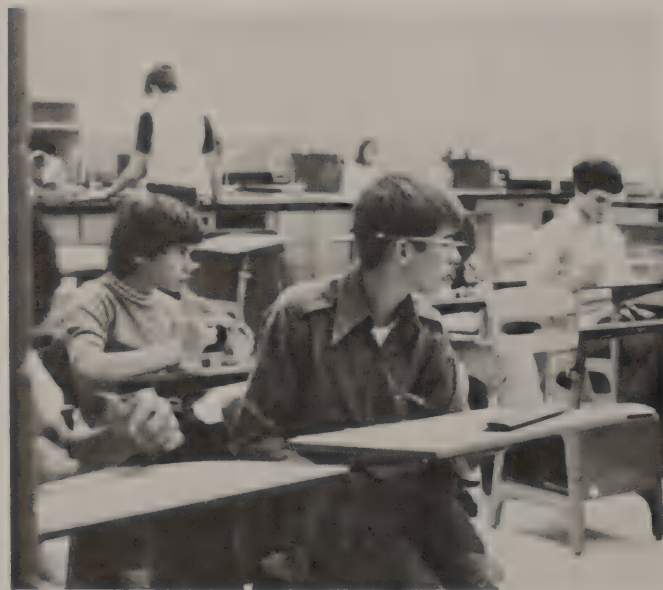

The Math and Slide Rule Club improves students ability to use math skills in everyday life. Members of the Math Club, led by Miss Tylar, increased their knowledge of equations, variables, and algebraic expressions. The Slide Rule Club also taught the basic skills for the use of the slide rule, a skill which is essential for the college bound. Both the Math and Slide Rule Club prepare students for later life.

Mr. Stokley gets a big kick out of helping student's solve their math problems.

"This is your assignment," explains Mrs. Knight. "This should keep you busy!"

Students discover that using the slide rule can be helpful, although learning to use it may be difficult.

Mr. Cook wonders if the students will ever get the answers right the first time.

Student Develop Skills in Science

Mrs. Phillips shows Science Club members that there is more than one way to skin a cat.

Emory Whaley gives a demonstration of heating and twisting glass.

The Science Club, led by Mr. Holloway and Mrs. Phillips, deals with the various aspects of the sciences. Included are studies in chemistry, geology, and especially life science. Field trips were made to promote interest and break the routine classroom monotony. The purpose of the club was to teach students science that would be useful in their classes and in later life. One student, when asked why she enrolled in the Science Club, merely replied, "To find out more about Science."

Mr. Williams helps Suzie Hancock solve a difficult science problem.

Marsha McCallister says, "I think I'm going to be sick to my stomach."

Band Members Express Themselves Through Music

Leading the way in music, our band worked enthusiastically to promote school spirit and entertainment at all home games. In their new uniforms, the band took part in Band Day activities at F.S.U.'s Homecoming, marched in community parades, and also gave a Spring Concert. Marching with the band were the Majorettes who also worked hard to encourage others to join in with their school spirit. This year we also had a Jazz Rock Band, which attended the Jazz festival at F.S.U. The chance to learn how to play hard rock music was given to students through this club.

The Band members sometime start off with a "bang", beginning long hours of practice.

Mr. Kane is getting everything just right for the Homecoming march.

Majorette Tammy Dunn, entertains during half time.

Leading the band this year were Majorettes Tammy Dunn, Starlene Council, Becky Cameron, Colleen Dumond, and Drum Major Larry Cummings.

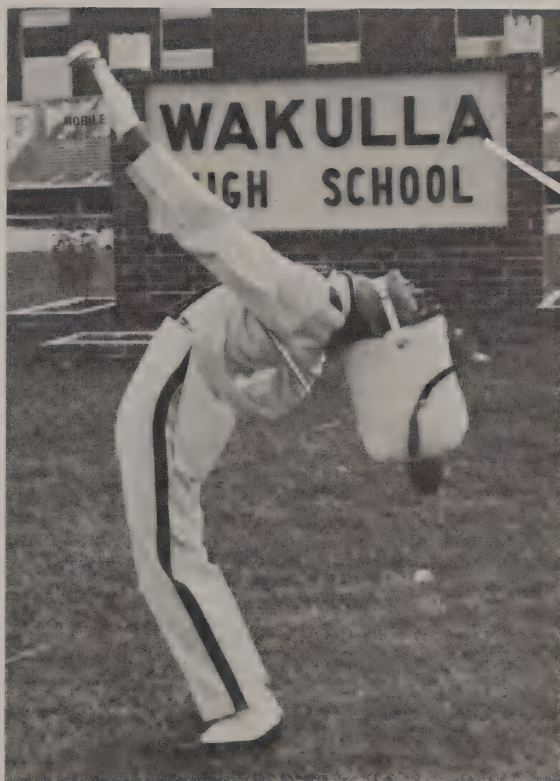

The War Eagle Band is proud of their new uniforms.

Band members take time out to relax after a hard half-time performance.

Band member Tina Moore marches off the field after entertaining the crowd at half-time.

Being drum major of a fairly new band proves to be a back breaking job for Larry Cummings.

Crafts BOOM at Wakulla

Hand Sewing and Crocheting students this year experienced the exciting world of producing such crafts as creative jean patching, embroidery, and applique. Thanks to the guidance of Miss Nasby and Mrs. Whaley, students have become so interested with needlecrafts that they are introducing their friends to this hobby. Sr. High Handicrafts together with the Creative Crafts students learned ways to construct many inexpensive, yet beautiful gifts. These students, following the examples set by their sponsors Mrs. Wooten and Miss Marchich, produced such crafts as shawls, handbags, scarfs, and belts. Art students under the direction of Mrs. Head, again this year worked endlessly to raise money for their trips to major art centers.

Crocheting seems to have become the "fun" thing to do.

Mrs. Wooten shows Willette Carter how to make felt butterflies.

Cheryl Lewis shows Miss Nasby and Sherie Posey how easy it is to do needlework.

Brushes, paint, and skill make art an enjoyable combination for Rhonda Carraway.

Carol Metcalf and Diana Jacks work endlessly to complete their hand sewing projects.

Art Club Keeps On 'Truckin'

Olivia Hunter, Karla Raker, and Rebecca Montgomery work to mold an Eagle out of chicken wire.

Paper mache' requires both patience and continuous work as Alvin Marks, Dwayne Woods, and Mrs. Head have found.

Everybody's Reading And Enjoying It Too

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Redd, members of Junior High Library Club learned the techniques of running a library. Students in this club learned how to do useful jobs in the library, such as running machines, and checking in and out books. Reading for Pleasure Club members enjoyed using their club time just for reading and studying.

Ervin Jackson stays busy in the library.

Wanda Crum and Sonja Sanders enjoys the quiet of the library.

Dorese Brimmer and her friends, Donna Craft and Stephanie Parrish find out reading can be fun.

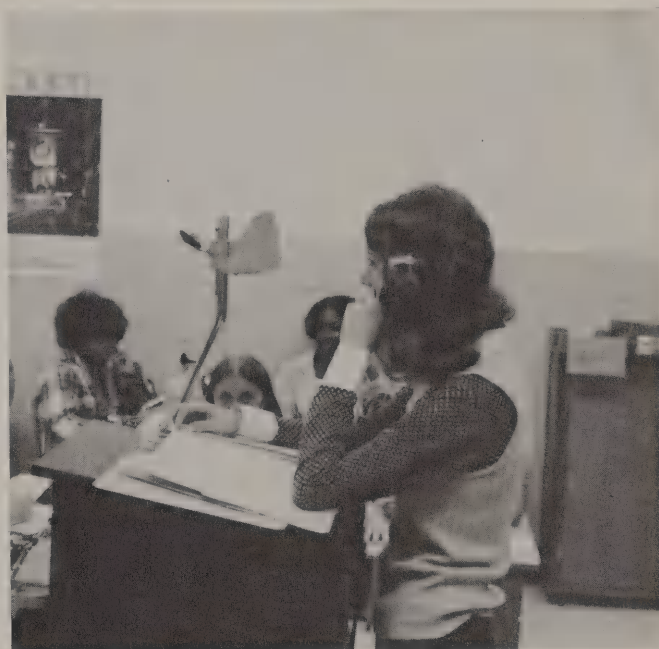

Being a librarian means sorting through books.

Clubs Encourages Business and Vocational Skills

F.B.L.A. officers are Pam Lawhon, Reporter; Susie Harris, Program Chairman; Carmen Pelt, Social Chairman; Sandra Davis, Secretary; Cindy Strickland, Treasurer; Sheree Phillips, Vice President; Diane Revell, President.

Under the sponsorship of Miss Edwards, Future Business Leaders of America had eighteen students involved this year. Using their business skills F.B.L.A. competed against students from different schools. Mr. Carter and Mr. Harvey sponsored Vocational Industrial Clubs of America (V.I.C.A.). F.B.L.A. and V.I.C.A.'s main purpose was to encourage young men and women to develop a skill that will help them later in their business lives. Wakulla's Career Ed. Program, which is directed by Mr. Ward, instructs Junior High students on career possibilities.

Mr. Ward's mobile unit is designed to help students with Career possibilities.

Wrestling and Weightlifting Clubs Promote Physical Fitness

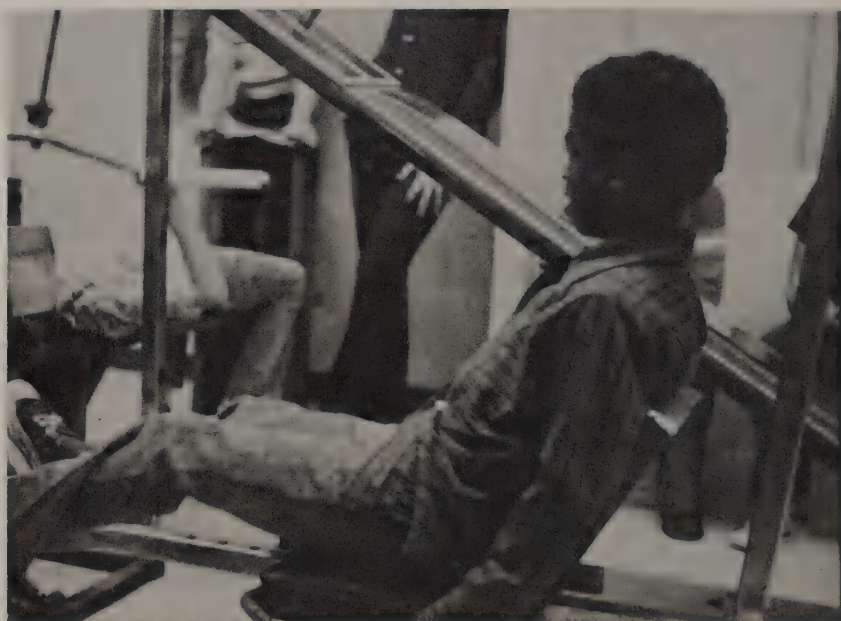

The Wrestling and Weightlifting Clubs had a successful year. The Wrestling Club wrestled its members into top physical condition. The Weightlifting Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Wooten, also promoted physical fitness. Being one of the largest clubs, with approximately 50 members each activity period, it gave the club a chance to reach a large portion of the student body. The student body will be expecting great things from these clubs in the years to come.

Robert King strains to achieve the goal he has set for himself during a workout.

Members of the Weightlifting Club look on with eager faces as they await their turn.

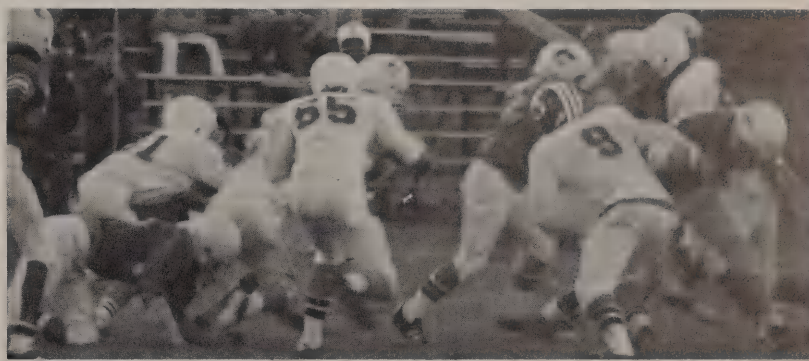

This student discovers that weightlifting can loosen up stiff muscles.

Athletic Clubs Strive for Excellence in Sportmanship

Billy Harper leaps high to spike a shot as teammates look on in suspense.

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Boys' Intramurals were on the go again this year. Under the supervision of several faculty members, Boys' Intramurals taught and practiced the basic skills of basketball, softball, volleyball, and other types of ball games. The Fellowship of Christian Athletes stressed the importance of fair play and good sportsmanship in all phases of athletics, two qualities which are essential in all forms of competitive sports.

Jr. High players find that good sportsmanship is an essential factor in all games.

Junior Varsity players discuss their strategy for the next play.

Wilbur Bradham finds that playing volleyball can be very tiring.

Games Give Students A Chance To Participate

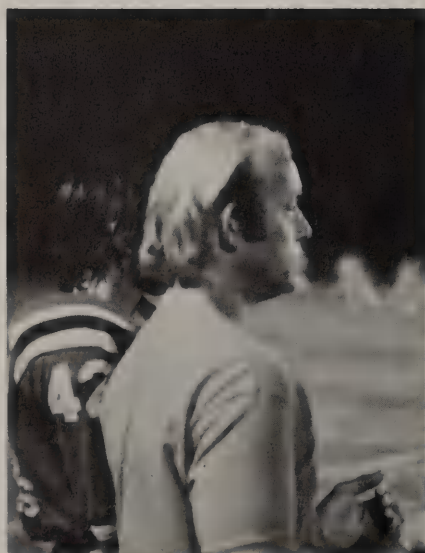

Many of Wakulla students spent their activity periods playing table games, softball, chess, and intramurals. Junior High table games included cards, Pass Word, checkers, and any other game which students brought from home. Girl's softball gave the girls a chance to go outside with their friends for an hour of recreation. Students found out that chess was not only a game of fun, but of concentration. Intramurals gave all students a chance to play the games they liked. These activities allowed the students and the supervising staff members a chance to be together and have fun outside of the classroom.

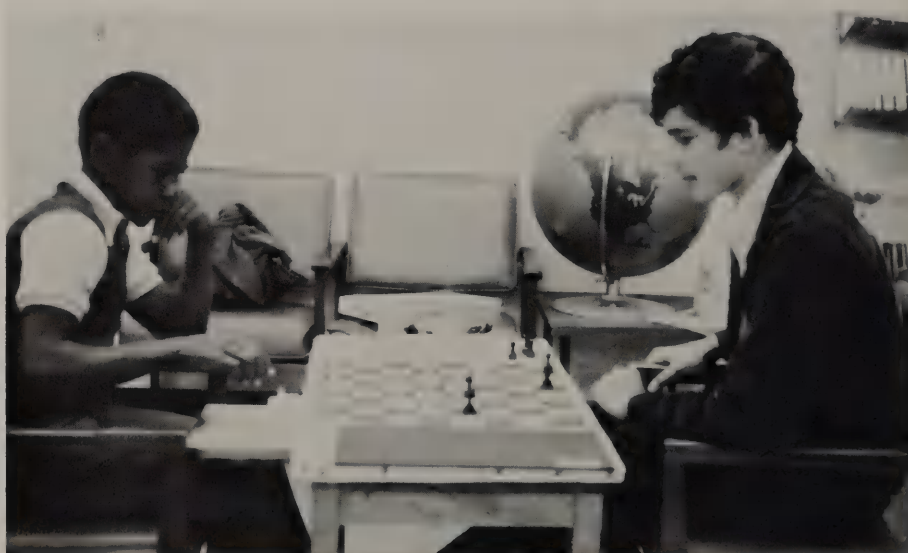

Playing games gives students time to enjoy being together.

Softball provides great enjoyment for Miss Brady's team.

Mr. Jones, Intramural Chairman, counts on his fingers to keep track of the scores.

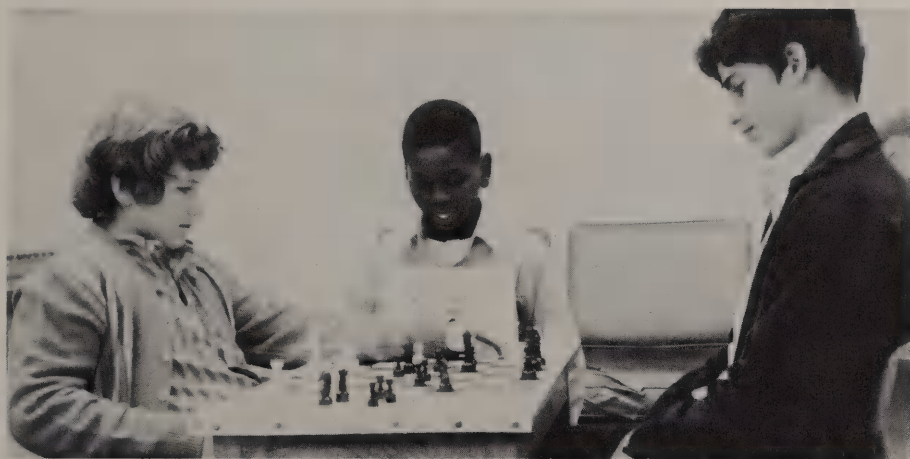

Earl Davis has to wait while Charles Williams think carefully about his next move.

Jerry Cash has to deal the cards quickly in order to be able to keep up with the other players.

Mrs. McCall, an intramural supervisor, rushes to supervise this activity.

Charles Williams keeps an eye on Mike Nash and Earl Davis so they won't make the wrong plays.

Donald Stockton watches Dennis Sloan to make sure that he makes no mistakes in his game of solitaire.

Jeff Alexander and Ike Gregg find that playing password is a good time consumer.

Robbie King finds out that a basketball makes a good pillow, while he watches his fellow teammates play.

Student Council Works for Wakulla Students

Student Council again led the way in school activities this year. Student Council worked with the students and the administration throughout the school year. Under the leadership of Mr. Tomberlin, Student Council played the main role in many events, such as Homecoming '73' which was a great success. President, Shirley Tartt commented, "It was a great year for Student Council, and we all feel that all the work we did was well worth the cause—for the students at Wakulla High School!"

Student Council officers are Janice Pope, Reporter; Sharlene Smith, Treasurer; Naomi Smith, Secretary; Renita Williams, Vice President; Shirley Tartt, President.

Student Council Advisor, Mr. Tomberlin, studies the Homecoming plans as Student Council members watch.

Student Council member Mark McCauley helps to make the Homecoming banner.

Christmas Spirit Fills Halls

The Math Department said Merry Christmas with a brightly decorated door.

The Sophomore Class provided the school with a gaily decorated Christmas Tree.

Wakulla came alive in December with the sights and sounds of Christmas throughout the school. The Sophomore class provided the school with a gaily decorated Christmas Tree. Everyone got into the Christmas spirit as the halls, rooms, and buses were decked with Christmas Cheer. School ended for the holidays with a Christmas assembly in which Santa made a surprise appearance.

Sheila Porter finds the water tastes better with the fountain decorated.

Students at Wakulla change the appearance of their school bus by adding Christmas Decorations.

A Way To Express Themselves . . .

As members of the International Thespian Society, the Thespians were host for the District Competition at F.S.U. and they participated in the state competition at Tampa in January. Membership into the society is awarded for excellence in skills performed in all areas of theatre. Angie Evans, president, expressed her ideas of Thespians by saying, "It's a way to express yourself . . ."

Drama members get ready to add life to an empty stage.

Drama Club officers are Wanda Pelt, Secretary; Paula Gaby, Treasurer; Angie Evans, President; Karen Porter, Vice-President; Patty Glover, Membership Office; (not pictured) Linda Commander, Public Relations.

The sun, Bobby Donaldson, shines brightly on Ginger Cook and Gib Jones.

Students Explore Drama

Mrs. O'Connell and the Drama class discuss new ideas for drama.

The Jr. and Sr. High Drama were directed by the Thespian sponsors, Ms. O'Connell and Ms. Roberts. Each group was introduced to many areas of acting including sensitivity, theater games, panomine, and improvisation. Every student was able to use their own talent in each of their experiences in the Children's Theater. Children's Theater is involved in creating a world of drama for young children.

Jr. High Drama members use their own ideas to create skits.

"Try to put some emotion into it!" the director tells her students.

Tracy West and Ginger Cook use music to set a dramatic mood.

Cheerleaders and Pep Club Boost School Spirit

This year, the goal set by Wakulla Pep Club and Cheerleaders was to boost school spirit. Bake sales, car washes, and other projects helped in raising money. With long hours of practice, Junior Varsity and Varsity Cheerleaders helped to make this year most successful and exciting. The spirit of Wakulla fans and team members was boosted by Cheerleaders and Pep Club.

CCFC Introduces New Ideas to WHS

Under the direction of Miss Kemp and Coach Anderson, the Campus Crusade for Christ got off to a very good start. To begin the year they received a donation from the County Ministerial Association, for the help in boosting the County-Wide Revival which was held at Wakulla High for two consecutive weeks. Also they were responsible for the Memorial Plaque in the main lobby. The purpose of CCFC was to make sure everyone on campus knows about Christ. The Bible Club was concerned with learning how the Bible relates to world affairs. Provocative discussions provided answers for those seeking them.

Campus Crusade officers—Pam Lawhon, Chaplain; Marcia Mathis, Treasurer; Sandra Davis, Vice-President; Duane Thurmond, President; Regina Oaks, Secretary; Gary Lawhon, Reporter.

As Miss Kemp discusses an important issue, Ricky Taylor finds that CCFC offers an opportunity to really think about your life.

It's sing-along time again!

VICA and Woodworking Bring Challenges

Eddie Brimmer and Larry Wetherington combine their skills in woodworking.

Gene Strickland finds working in shop challenging and also interesting.

Lewis Clark and Lamar Young discover that drafting in Industrial Arts isn't as hard as it seems.

In VICA and Woodworking, Mr. Wood was able to create an extremely large amount of excitement for those interested in woodwork. Students made plaques, tables, and bookcases for use at school. They even had an opportunity to work together in building a boat which was raced in competition with other schools. Mr. Harvey, Mr. Glover, and Mr. Carter worked with students interested in welding and small engines, helping them build usable skills.

Mr. Wood said, "Get this thing fixed." So let's get rolling!

Students Show Interest in Teaching

"We're looking for future teachers." You may have heard this phrase if you were in Future Teachers of America. F.T.A. allowed students to see what it's really like to be a teacher. F.T.A. had many fund raising activities such as selling name tags and making octopus dolls. F.T.A. officers were: Lota Haddock, President; Cynthia Allen, Vice President; Jewel Booth, Secretary; Brenda Boyd, Treasurer. A number of students also assisted teachers this year by grading and filing papers. According to comments by Wakulla teachers, the teacher assistants proved to be a great help.

Mrs. Jensen shows Cheryl Brimner how to correct a misspelled word.

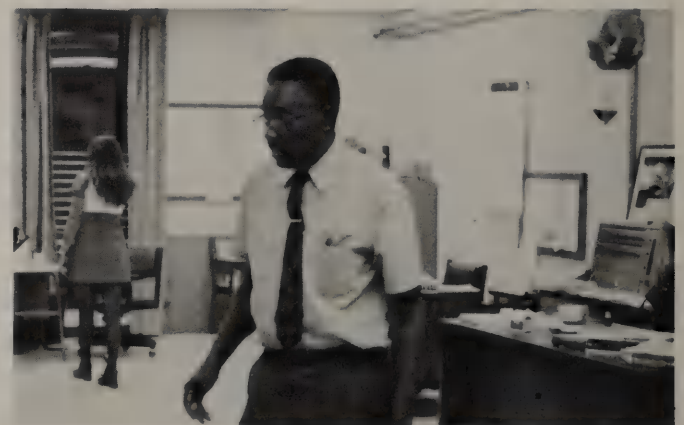

Mrs. Hatfield shows Linda Allen and Gwen Rosier just how she wants her work done.

Judi Tartt looks on while Miss Dellinger discusses her work with assistant Dinee Dickson.

Mr. Stokely enjoys a conversation with assistant Sarabeth Morrison.

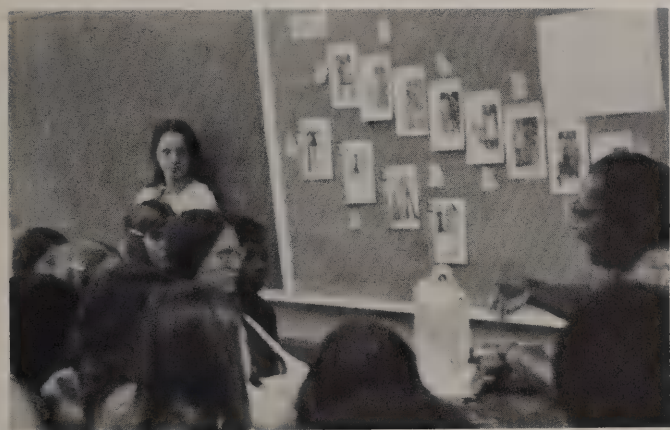

Mr. Green often helps the office assistants in getting their work done.

Skills in Homemaking are Displayed at Wakulla

Students involved in homemaking often have bake sales to demonstrate their cooking abilities.

Mrs. Nasby explains the techniques of sewing to students in her class.

Child Care, Bachelor Living, and Family Living were taught by Mrs. Andrea Barrett.

The Foreign Foods Club took a trip "Around the World with Food." They studied eating customs of countries such as Italy, Spain, and Greece, by preparing a dish from each country. Foreign Foods officers are: Nita Franklin, President; Bobby Donaldson, Vice President; Lester Dunlap, Secretary; Vann Had-dock, Treasurer. The students in Future Homemakers of America participated in school activities as well as in district and state meetings.

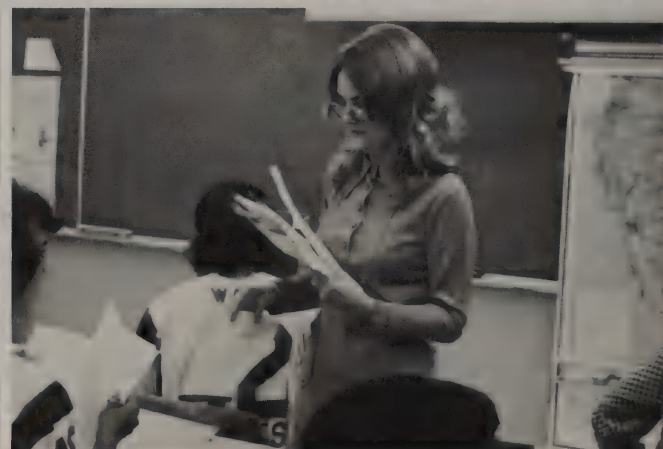

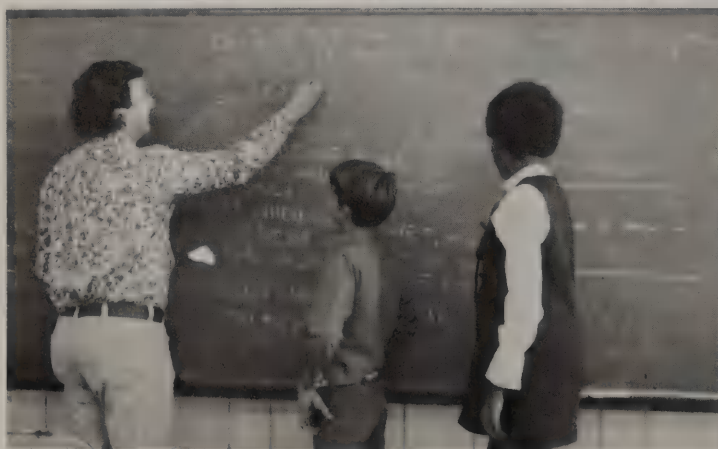

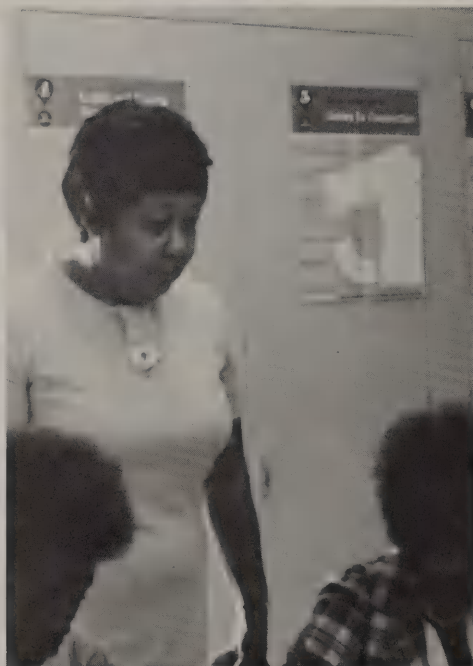

Mrs. Holland listens to one of her students as she explains how to prepare a dish.

*C'mon, people,
Now Smile
On Your Brother.*

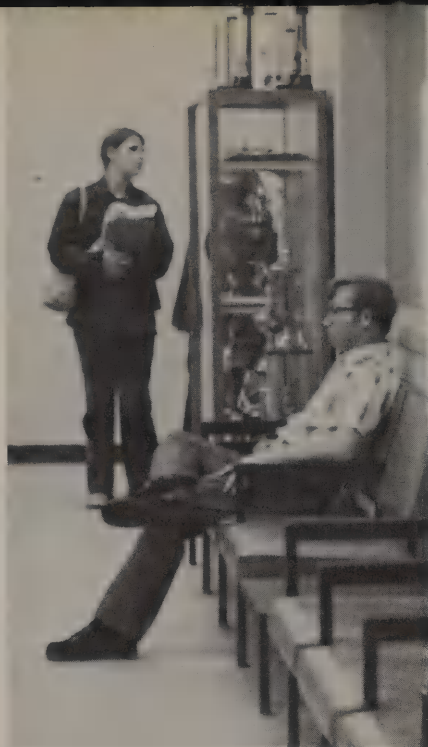

Let's Get Together.

*Try to Love
One Another
Right Now.*

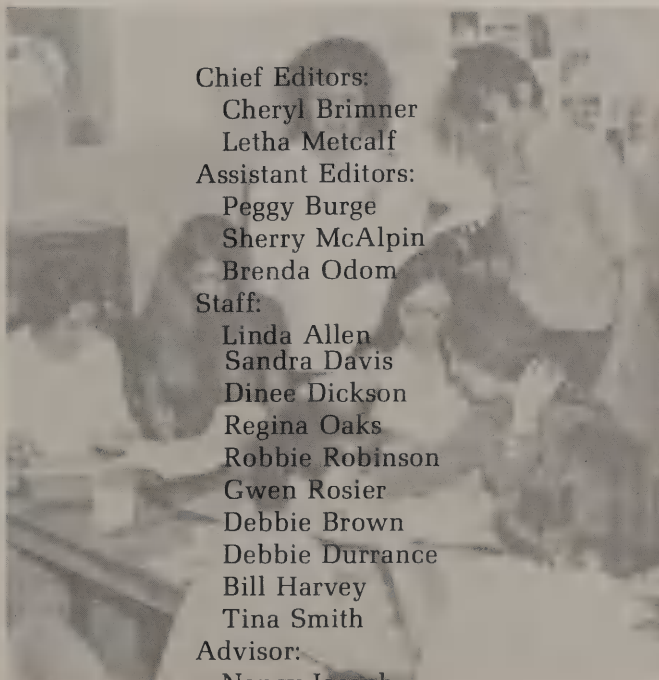

LET'S GET TOGETHER

Some will come and some will go,
and we shall surely pass
When the one who left us here returns for us at last.
We are but a moment's sunlight,
fading on the grass.

C'mon, people, now smile on your brother. Let's get together, try to love one another
Right now . . .

In Memoriam

Legacy for a Boy

Johnny Nazworth

I would not leave you riches
For that you can amass;
But I shall point you beauty
In a slender blade of grass.

I would not leave you power
For power walks alone;
But I shall teach you brotherhood
And kindnesses I've known.

I would not leave you sweet content
For I would have you climb;
So I shall lift your face to stars
Where heaven's blessings shine.

I would not leave you much of worth
According to the men on earth;
For I . . . with hope and faith as themes
Endow you with my wealth of dreams.
